ABSTRACT

This comprehensive guide includes background and publication information about picture books for children and adolescents by Latino authors, summaries of titles and bibliographical information on the authors, illustrators, and translators. The picture books suggested in the guide cover a variety of different subjects, including families, holidays, celebrations, animals, foods, libraries, homes, traditions, religious celebrations, and careers. All the books in the guide are: original stories set in the United States, currently in print, available for purchase, and in English or bilingual format. The guide's Appendixes, including a subject-title index, literary and artistic awards/lists of recommended books, and a list of publishers, provide time-saving assistance in finding books suited to a particular subject or situation.
